

Co-op News is the only publication targeting the vibrant co-op economy, and is the most cost-effective way of reaching this pioneering sector.

As the voice of the co-operative movement for almost 150 years, we have an unrivalled audience of activists, workers and practitioners across the co-op sector who all want to actively support other co-ops and ethical brands. This highly targeted readership represents some of the most co-operatively engaged people in the UK and a key market that your co-op-focused marketing campaign should be addressing.

Published every month, Co-op News brings together the best and most detailed content on the UK co-op market available, and also includes expert focus on international co-operative issues. It champions and challenges the sector through news reports, profiles, analysis and comment. The website is updated daily and we have high engagement on social media
